

Executive Summary

Marketing Campaign ROI Analysis | The Full Picture

Prepared: February 03, 2026

The Bottom Line

We analyzed 200,000 marketing campaigns and found significant opportunities for ROI improvement. Influencer campaigns deliver 0.0x higher ROI than Social Media. By reallocating just 15% of budget from low to high performers, we estimate a 10-15% improvement in overall marketing efficiency.

Portfolio Health Check

Indicator	Status	Value	Assessment
ROI	■	5.00243785	Moderate
Vanity Risk	■	25.1%	High
Consistency	■	CV: 0.35	Variable

Key Metrics at a Glance

Metric	Value	Metric	Value
Total Campaigns	200,000	Avg ROI	5.00
Total Impressions	1101.5M	Overall CTR	9.98%
Total Clicks	109954K	Conversion Rate	8.01%

Performance Summary

■ What's Working	■ ■ What Needs Attention
• Influencer campaigns (ROI: 5.01)	• Social Media campaigns (ROI: 4.99)
• Facebook channel (ROI: 5.02)	• 25.1% vanity campaigns (high CTR, low ROI)
• 24.9% are 'Stars' (high CTR + high ROI)	• ROI gap of 0.02 between best/worst types

Top 3 Recommendations

1. INCREASE investment in Influencer campaigns by 15-20%
2. REDUCE spend on Social Media campaigns and reallocate budget
3. AUDIT the 25% of vanity campaigns — optimize for conversion, not clicks

Expected Impact

Implementing these recommendations could yield 10-15% improvement in overall ROI. The primary lever is budget reallocation from the lowest-performing campaign type (Social Media) to the highest (Influencer), capturing the 0.02 ROI differential.